From the New York Tribune.
NORTH AND SOUTH.

The journals of Virginia love to draw parallels betwixt the people and institutions of the slave and the free States. Such specimens of rhetoric gleam in the columns of the oracles of slave-driving but we have rarely met with one more instructive than the following from the Richmond Enquirer:

> "The relations between the North and the South are very analogous to the relations between Greece and the Roman Empire after the subjugation of Achaia by the Consul Mummius. The dignity and energy of the Roman character, conspicuous in war and in politics, were not easily tamed and adjusted to the arts of industry and literature. The degenerate and effeminate Greeks, on the contrary [illegible] We learn from the vigorous invective of Juvenal, that they were the most useful and capable of servants, whether as gladiators or professors of rhetoric. [illegible] the business of teaching, publishing, and manufacturing in the Roman Empire—allowing their masters ample leisure for the service of the State, in the Senate or in the field. The people of the Northern States of this Confederacy exhibit the same aptitude for the art of industry. They are the clerks, mechanics, and tradesmen, and they have monopolized the business of teaching, publishing, and peddling."

Considering the habitual deference of the northern dough faces to southern presumption and truculence, we are not ready to be surprised at anything in the way of insult in return for all that the North has done to sustain the political supremacy of the South. The above, therefore, is in perfect keeping with sundry antecedents, and has in it a truth which might well sting with shame the class of persons to whom it fits. There is, indeed, a class at the North whose religion has been aptly described as "Commercial Christianity," who are "pliant Greeks" and "pimps" to the South, "obsequious, dexterous and ready" to sell their very souls to whoever can be cheated into buying so false a commodity. These men are apt to be dealers in cotton or molasses, or tobacco, great saviors of the Union, haters of agitation and of humanity, rending their opinions as makeweights to their merchandise. Of this loathsome description of creatures we have a full supply in the great commercial cities, where every vice and deformity resorts for profit and concealment. But, thank God, they are few and feeble compared with the uncorrupted and unpurchased millions who till their own farms and toil in their own workshops, and who know what it is to vote for truth and justice, and their honest conviction. On these millions the "high born aristocrat" of Virginia looks down with equal contempt, making the fatal blunder of confounding the sons of labor with the prostitutes of commerce. This is not new nor surprising. That men who do not work should despise those who do is a fashion as old as society. "He shall serve his brethren"—and get spit upon and kicked for his pains. Virginia selling and sweating negroes, or drawing on the blue book for rations, is, of course, the "impersonation of the high-born aristocracy," and the extract we have given is consonant with such claims. But let us look a little further into the ideal which Virginia sets up for herself.

The classic Enquirer introduces us to Mummius, a character so happy in a quotation for chivalric illustration that we must describe him. Mummius was a brute Consul—a barbarian—more advanced perhaps than men who sell their own sons and daughters in Virginia—but still a barbarian. Not respecting the grandeur or glory of Athens, and having a force at his command greater than that little republic could oppose to him, she fell. Having conquered her, the first thing to do was to rob her according to the invariable rule of chivalry. Not even the statesque gods, whereon genius had wreaked its holiest fires, were spared, and Mummius superintended the work of brigandage on the temple itself. An evidence of his chivalric culture we commend to the southern chivalry, whose art-productions are fully equal to those of the Romans at that period. When the Athenian porters were removing the treasures of the temple, Mummius told them if they broke the statues they should make others. O Phidias! Mummius was a chivalrous gentleman of the true steel. "The dignity and energy of the "Roman character, conspicuous in war and in "politics, were not easily tamed and adjusted "to the arts of industry and literature." So it seems, by the above anecdote, and that the majority of the great men of the South have as much acquaintance with art as Mummius, we fully believe. The Greeks it seemed, toiled, and allowed their "masters ample leisure for the "service of the State, in the Senate, or in the "field." Of course the analogy between this and the North and the South is perfect. The people of the free States work, and allow the Southern masters ample leisure for the service of the State, either in the Senate or the field—True to the letter. Our national legislation down to 1850 proves it. The degredation of the North seemed to have touched bottom about 1850—but there was a lower deep yet unsounded, as was shown in the passage of the Kansas Nebraska bill. Whether there is anything yet lower we are not prepared to say. However, it is well to know what is thought of the Northerners who coalesce with the Southern oligarchs, and find no work too mean for execution.

Politics and fighting, however, did for the Roman Empire what they are doing for the South—they sent it to perdition. Not even Grecian art and industry could save it. As Empire spread, heroes had to be rewarded, and little by little slave labor usurped the place of free. The slaves, originally one-fifteenth portion of the population, became in due time one half; and servile wars, and the crucifixion of an army of gladiators, whose dying shrieks yet seem to pierce the ear of the centuries, marked the decay and corruption of the Roman model of the Southern aristocracy. That the Southern States would not have been saved from a St. Domingo massacre, without the support moral and material of the Northern, may well be believed, for all history teaches that blood wipes out tyranny. But the humanitarian tendencies of the North—its huge array of labor saving machinery—its cotton gin, whose inventor is of more value to the South than all her politicians—its steamboats, without which the intercommunication of the South would be like that of Europe in the Middle Ages, and her annexations impossible—the very ferocity of Northern made bowie knives and revolving pistols and guns, which make the master the overmatch of the slave—all these have saved and given such strength to the South as she now has. Take them away, and would eloquence and abstractions save her! What would the political lumber of Calhoun's essays avail! or the windy editorials of Enquirers and Examiners, and all the other parish newspapers of Virginia and Carolina! It is most true that the South has nothing but politicians and soldiers; of inventors, savans, artists—men who really shape and sustain Empires—she is destitute. We hear of nothing that she produces beyond raw material and political abstractions. For legal work—substantial contributions to the science of government—we must look to the North—to the Kents and Storys.

The comparison about the soldiery, however, is drawn in the above quoted paragraph. Most true it is that propositions and votes to increase army and navy come from the South, and gentlemen with such magnificent notions of chivalry—who compare northern laborers to the "pimps" of nameless houses—are ever ready to get commissions and salaries paid out of the pockets of the northern laborers. But here we must stop in the parallel. "Let the North "supply the men and the South will supply the "officers," was the word during the Revolution; and it is so now. The army and navy of the United States are recruited as far as the men are concerned almost exclusively from the North. So was it during the Revolution. Massachusetts gave more troops to the American armies than all the South put together! So much for the chivalric boast aforesaid. And they were the men who fought, to say the least, equal to any others, if not better; the same being the case among their immediate ancestors, the iron men of Cromwell's army, who never turned their back upon a foe, and performed "impossibilities" in Flanders. As regards the fighting, we are willing to take up history and show chapter and verse, that the laboring men of a nation, not enslaved at home, have always been invincible against whatever foe. When the combined armies of Europe were led by chivalry against the workingmen of France, commanded by mechanics in the revolutionary wars, a baker and a printer sent the Duke of York howling to his gods—only his "MONEY CHEST," says Cobbett, being secured in the inglorious flight. Talk not either of fighting Romans in contradistinction to those that "at Marathon and Leuctra bled," to the awful wonder wars of the roused peasantry and artisans of France, to the heroes of the commonwealth of Old and New England, to the might that ever lies in a freeman's arms.

As for the sneer against the North as producing the teachers and publishers of the nation, we accept it. "Literature," says Dr. Johnson, "is the chief glory of a nation." So thought Washington when he entertained the idea of a National University. So thought Jefferson when he instituted that of Charlottesville. But it is reserved for the downward tendency of the Virginia mind to attack letters and the press! The teacher, the publisher—the man who opens the youthful mind to the luster of thought and the amenities of life—the man who, harnessing steam power to the olden craft of typography, sheds as generously as ocean spray the light of books on all—rich and poor—alike, only saving those crushed in the iron grasp of oppression! Fit subjects for attack from such a quarter!

Our northern readers should be kept aware of the estimate set upon their states by the southern oligarchs, and in the above extract they have another sample.

We have shown how men who buy and sell "excellent mechanics" and "steady field hands," as they do hogs and asses, regard the people of the North. We have exhibited the ideal of Virginia as drawn from Mummius in the times when gladiators fought by thousands in the big murder-ring of the Coliseum, and the faint-hearted were driven on by applications of red-hot iron to strike and die—when four hundred slaves under one master was put to death according to a general law for the crime so-called of one of them. Blessed be such parallels. We love these dear old bits of history chattered in the cherrup-trebles of chivalrous school-boys who are taught so much of Rome as she was not, and repeated in the [illegible] rotunda of mounting statesmanship, or the solemn pretension of oracular [illegible].

THE FOREIGN NEWS—THE MAILS OF THE STEAMERS ASIA AND ARCTIC.

The mails of the steamer Asia arrived on yesterday. In addition to her own she brings the mails of the Arctic, the latter vessel having run upon a rock, when in her second day out, near Tuskar, and was forced to put back to Liverpool. The news, for the mails of two steamers, is rather meagre, though portions of it are very interesting. It is rumored, via Paris, that Revel, one of the three principal Russian naval ports in the Baltic has been bombarded. Admiral NAPIER has, however, not yet sent his report. He is, for the time being, fighting only against furious gales and hurricanes, that have just set in, probably in the interest of the Czar, who, it must be confessed, can raise tempests like any Prospero. Whether he will be potent enough to calm them, is a different question. One thing is sure, and that is, that he commands much confidence in his friends, and a still greater dread on the part of his enemies. That such a mock-ing as Otho, and such a petty Prince of a handful of robbers as DANIEL of Montenegro, surrounded as they are by the "powerful Allies," should be bold enough to declare, as they do openly, in favor of Russia, is a sufficient proof, that they have entire reliance in the present and future favor of the Czar, who fought for him against their lawful Sovereign, the Sultan. And the dread of his enemies is sufficiently proved by the vacillating policy of the Western Powers, the fresh reopening of the Vienna Conferences, the irresolution in the operations of the war, the delay in the arrivals of the Commanders in Chief, and by the fortifying of such distant places as Gallipoli, the siege of which presupposes the capture of all the Turkish fortresses on the Danube with a triumphant crossing of the Balkans.

With the German Powers the case is still more striking. Disgusted with the trembling hypocrisy and complimentary duplicity of the Court of Vienna, which meets him in every direction, NICHOLAS sends an army-corps to the frontiers of Gallicia, and approaches the boundaries of Transylvania. And what is the answer of Austria? She calls out 95,000 troops to send them to the threatened Northeastern and Eastern frontiers of the Empire, but at the same time, prudently abstains from making any statement of her true object, to France and England. On the contrary, she is more cautious and reserved than ever, and her Ambassador in Paris, the newly returned Mr. HUBNER, is directed to repeat, that it is impossible for Austria to take any active part against Russia, until the troops of the Allied Powers shall be ready to give battle. And, what is still more significant, the same Ambassador raises once more the much vexed, but lately abandoned question of the refugees, and requires some explicit information with respect to Polish legions about to be formed. It is no wonder that at such news the very friendly Morning Chronicle begins to grumble against the friend of the Western Alliance.—Prussia, for her part, maintains still the same ground of cold neutrality; she gives, at least no promises, and proceeds to dismiss, one by one, all her anti-Russian servants. M. MANTEUFFEL himself hardly escaped disgrace. Such is the dread of the Czar,—a dread felt of his power, and perhaps even more at the prospect of his fall.

The secondary German States are by no means more resolute, and they talk of uniting a separate alliance, and to discuss the propriety of joining the Austro-Prussian treaty. At the same time Bavaria, the land of the young Austrian Empress, takes the lead in a movement in favor of Greece, to secure her integrity and independence at all events.

So much for Germany; but apropos of Greece, the French Colonel FOREY is gone to Athens, with two or more battalions, as his Secretaries and attaches. He is to ask for the interest of the Greek loan, in arrear since 1819. In case of refusal to pay, he is to execute his orders and occupy such part of the country as he may be allowed to hold. NAPOLEON III. is after all, the only fit man for the Czar. He can act with some energy, and without much talk.—Accordingly he is almost as much feared as NICHOLAS himself, by all the amphibious creatures of the Kingdom and Empire. He would undoubtedly do even more, but for his perils at home, where arrests are made almost daily, and hardly noticed by any excepting those who are not yet deafened by the noise of war, and blinded by the smoke of the bombardment of Sebastopol,—which is another hoax, by the way, much resembling in form that of the destruction of Odessa, the reason given for it being the capture by the Russians of the Tiger, a British frigate, which went aground near that fortress.

France is quiet; but the tranquility of France is always heavy with a storm, more terrible because sudden and unlooked for. From arrests to hanging is but a brief space, especially in Rome and in Austria; and the gallows has had two more victims in each of those two places,—were sentenced—the first as the murderers of Rossi; the others as emissaries of Kossuth.—Such are the measures taken to conciliate the Revolution. In the meantime, the exiles assemble in Turkey, and take service in the Ottoman army. Many are sent to Asia, but the most remain in Constantinople, awaiting their time.—We read that Gen. Klapka has been presented to Prince Napoleon, who makes quite a figure in the Sultan's Capital, and is feasted by Turk and Englishman, and sends glorious despatches to the old Jerome, who is not likely to answer in the same style, if, as is confidently asserted, the Empress Eugenie should really be in a state very interesting to all but the father of a Crown Prince and General of the Reserve. The best thing for the Prince to do would be to marry one of the Sultan's daughters, and so settle the Turkish question, by enthroning himself in Stamboul. What a glorious combination it would be to have a Pope Bonaparte, (for there are intrigues in Rome in favor of Lucien,) a Padishah Bonaparte, and an Emperor Bonaparte.

The news from Spain, by these arrivals, is interesting. It seems from the statements of the Madrid correspondent of the London Times, that the Spanish Government has consented, under the circumstances of the case, to pay the $8,000 demanded as indemnity for the owners of the Black Warrior, although it holds the authorities of Cuba to have been fully justified in all they did;—but it rejects peremptorily all the additional reclamations of the United States Government. The refusal is so peremptory that in the opinion of the Times correspondent, our Government must either back out or declare war. The Spanish Government also regards the aspect of the affair as decidedly threatening, since it has taken measures to increase the Cuban army very considerably. It is about to send 6,000 men as a reinforcement, which will raise the whole military force of the island to about 30,000 soldiers.

It is said that the impression is very strong among the best informed men at Washington that the Administration has purposely arranged matters so as to render a war with Spain almost inevitable. A very distinguished gentleman, not long since a Cabinet officer and likely to be well informed on the subject, has expressed the belief that we should be at war with Spain within ninety days. The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce thinks war improbable because the President cannot declare war without the concurrence of Congress. But past experience shows that it is very easy for the Executive to commence a war, and that Congress is then driven, with equal ease, to legalize the act. The last war with Mexico was brought about by the Executive. Whatever may be the disposition of Congress, a reckless President can plunge the country into war, with little difficulty. We trust Congress will not adjourn for the Summer, until our relations with Spain are placed on a better footing.

Good Father Matthew has had another shock of the palsy. The physicians have advised him to try the air of Madeira. He does not avail himself of the advice for one reason only—he is poor. He did have a pension of £300. But to secure a debt contracted, not for himself, but for the Temperance cause, which has been so dear to him, it was all paid to obtain a life insurance policy. A Limerick paper is the authority for this statement, which will make many friends sad.

A report reached Liverpool from Dublin, stating on the faith of a Rev. Mr. Babbington, of Derry, Ireland, that a letter had been received from a Mr. Smylie, one of the passengers of the steamer City of Glasgow, although in all the published lists his name was erroneously printed "Smalley." Richardson, Brothers & Co. telegraphed to Belfast to make inquiry, when it was found that the whole story was without foundation.

AN EDICT.

Our valorous President has issued a proclamation against the Cuban Fillibusters. His Excellency has been rather dilatory in making up his mind as to what the Grape Shot has been doing at the mouth of the Mississippi for these six weeks, with her freight of muskets. We are glad he at last suspects there is something in the wind, and acts accordingly. We should excuse his want of more prompt attention to this subject, we suppose, as he has of late been so much occupied in engineering the Nebraska bill through Congress, and more recently in attending to the public riots which have grown out of it. As to any practical good, however, which the proclamation will do, we have our doubts. We imagine that no one will think of obeying it, who has any wish to disobey it. The issuing of a proclamation by Franklin Pierce, against fillibustering, is a perfect farce.

FROM MEXICO.

The latest accounts which we have received from this most unfortunate and unsettled of nations, state that all sorts of festivities were going on at the capital in honor of Santa Anna's alleged victory, but which might with more propriety be termed a providential escape. It is, however, certain that he succeeded in making his way back without being overwhelmed, and that circumstance is seized upon by the government for the occasion of a great uproar.—While all this is going on for the amusement of the 'ignorant populace, conspiracies are being hatched in every direction. Of course the most stringent measures are adopted to suppress every sign of discontent.

GUNPOWDER EXPLOSIONS.

We have but recently recorded two terrible explosions of powder mills, accompanied by a melancholy destruction of human life. One of these accidents occurred at or near Hartford, Conn., and the other at Saugerties, on the Hudson river. By the latter, seven Germans, workmen in the mill, were blown into fragments, pieces of their limbs being found at a distance of two miles from the scene of the disaster.—But the climax of the catastrophies occurred on Wednesday morning last, when five tons of powder, belonging to the well known firm of Dupont & Co., exploded in the streets of Wilmington, Del., scattering death and destruction all around. The gunpowder was contained in three wagons, the drivers of which were of course annihilated, together with four other persons and fifteen horses. Five persons are known to be dangerously wounded. The dwelling of Bishop Lees, six private residences and six stables, were completely demolished, and some seventy five other houses were badly injured.—The inhabitants of Wilmington, had, from the frequency of the explosions at the establishment of the Messrs. Dupont, become somewhat accustomed to such affairs; but the event of Wednesday surprised them, and for a time it was believed by those not near the locality of the accident, that an earthquake had occurred, so fearful was the concussion. It is not yet, and probably never will be, ascertained how the accident happened.

WHISKY AND NEBRASKA; THE WATCH WORDS OF MODERN DEMOCRACY.

We give below the conclusion of U. S. Marshal Robinson's great speech at the late Democratic outpouring at Indianapolis, as reported in the Journal. We will not be considered extravagant when we say that it reminds us of Webster's peroration in the celebrated reply to Hayne. It is not unlikely to find a place at the side of that immortal specimen of American eloquence, in a Democratic series of school books, to be got up by Reverend Superintendent Larabee:

"The time has come," says Mr. Robinson, "for the Democrats to take ground on this question. Shall we now help whisky, which has so long helped us, or shall we basely leave the field, and see our friend gutted before our eyes? Shall we not stand together—must we not stand together—since none of us can stand alone? Shall our party be sundered by the cry of sobriety or the fanaticism of decency? No! When my eyes shall be turned for the last time to behold the glass in its rounds, may they not see my friends distressed with differences, and recklessly wasting, it may be, fraternal whisky. May they not look upon a country, blasted with cultivation, cursed with industry, and the barrels that held its glory busted or caved in. But on the contrary, may I see their banner, not defiled with those words of delusion and folly, "What good does all this liquor do?" but blazoned on all its ample folds, wherever it floats in the town, or in the country, that sentiment dear to every Democrat, 'Whisky and Democracy, now and forever, one and inseparable!'"

☞ Mr. William Worthington, a conductor on the Great Western Railroad, was instantly killed on the night of the 1st inst., by his head coming in contact with the post forming part of a cattleguard, while he was leaning over the platform, in examination of the running gear of the cars. His father was a passenger on board at the time, on his way to Chatham, to meet his wife, the mother of the deceased conductor. Mr. G. C. Cook, of the American Express Company, took the body on the express car, and rendered every assistance possible under the circumstances. Mr. Worthington was a resident of Buffalo, about 26 years of age, and was a most excellent and capable officer, highly esteemed by all who knew him. The interview between the father and mother, when they met at Chatham, after the sad occurrence, is said to have been, as well may be imagined, exceedingly affecting.

☞ The London Morning Post devotes over five columns to a list of guests at one of the Queen's drawing rooms, and a description of the ladies' dresses. Each lady's name is given in capitals, at full length, and is followed by a minute technical description of her apparel.—Among the American ladies present, we notice the names of Mrs. Col. T. B. Lawrence, Miss Lane and Mrs. Russell Sturgis. The London papers very frequently bestow marked and emphatic censure on the New York press, for venturing upon any allusion to the dresses or the names of ladies in attendance upon public parties. Yet the Morning Post is supported almost exclusively by the patronage it receives in consequence of the full report it always gives of such particulars.

☞ A horrible case of suicide is related in the Paris journals. On Sunday afternoon, and just as a large crowd were leaving from the hippodrome, a respectably dressed young man standing on the top of the Arc de Triomphe, drew all eyes on him by shouting gare—or look out there below. He then took off his hat, placed in it a purse of money, and the next instant jumped from the giddy height. The second platform brought him up stunned for a moment; but recovering his strength and sense, and again shouting gare, he made a second leap. He fell to the pavement near a soldier, crushed and lifeless, and his body was at once taken to that show case of suicide and murder, the Morgue. There must have been five thousand persons present when this horrible scene was enacted.

In the play of Richelieu, the wily old Cardinal tells Joseph that it is the favors to come, and not those that have been given and taken, which captivate and control men's minds.—Washington Union.

And the Administration has acted upon this principle to secure votes for the Nebraska swindle. But for the "captivating" influence of promised "favor to come," that bill could not have passed. "The old Cardinal" has disciples at Washington.

EMIGRATION AND REPEAL.

We do not believe there is one Northern man, not an office seeker, an office-holder, or a friend of an office-holder, who is not in his heart opposed to the principles of the bill which has lately passed Congress, for the organization of Kansas and Nebraska Territories. The wrong which this bill commits is so cruel, unjust, and abominable; the evil which it creates is so vast, so wide-spread, and so terrible; the injury which it allows to be committed toward our dearest and best interests so enormous, that there is but sentiment in regard to the measure throughout the great Northern heart, and that sentiment is one of unqualified disapproval and reprobation. This sentiment, ever since the inception of the movement, has been gaining in strength, and it has latterly been expressed in such unmistakable terms, as to render the fact overwhelmingly demonstrative. But the voice of the people of the North, expressed, as we say, in terms not to be mistaken, if not unheard, has at least, been most certainly, and most insultingly, disregarded. The House of Representatives, if left to their own free action, would have rejected, by a decided majority, this obnoxious measure, and would have rightfully reflected the wishes and views of the country. But they—or rather a controlling portion, have been tampered with, intimidated and corrupted. The one man power of the White House has defied and insulted the popular will, and has seduced forty-four of the people's Representatives and fifteen Senators, into a betrayal of their trust. The faithful minority in both houses of Congress, who represent the views and wishes of an overwhelming majority of the PEOPLE, relaxed no effort on their part, to prevent, so long as prevention seemed even possible, this breach of the public faith. They have been overborne, and it now becomes the imperative duty of the free States to meet the emergency which has been forced upon them, as becomes freemen. Their rights have been wantonly violated; a solemn compact, forced by the South upon them, has been by the South violated; Northern interests have been betrayed by false and corrupted Senators and Representatives; Northern feelings, prejudices and principles have been disregarded and insulted; and now no alternative has been left but to submit to the outrage and the wrong that is sought to be perpetrated, or to assert our manhood by courageous, vigorous, and it may yet be, by a successful resistance, to this attempted introduction of slavery into territory, that has been consecrated to freedom by a solemn covenant for more than a third of a century. The final passage of the law, now makes it the imperative duty of the free States to prevent its adoption from being made available for the spread of human servitude.

To accomplish this end, there have been two methods suggested, to the accomplishment of both of which we pledge our warmest and most earnest efforts, in which we know we shall be seconded by every truly patriotic and liberty loving Northern man. These methods are, an earnest, resolute, persistent, and well organized determination to secure the repeal of the bill which has just become a law; and free emigration to both the Territories in question.

Both of these measures are all important. Both may, in time, be accomplished. All that is wanted is faith for the one, fidelity for both. Both are necessary measures. The success of one does not supercede the necessity of the other. It is true that the securing of a large free emigration is by far the most easy, simple, practicable, and the safest measure. This should be done at once. The glorious work has been already well begun in Massachusetts, and in other States. Let their example be imitated in every free State in the Union. Iowa, it is said, stands ready to pour her ten thousand freemen into Nebraska, the moment the territory is open to emigration. We hope this is true. We trust that other States will contribute in like proportion. Our own State has already made a movement, and Chicago has already sent forth a small band of emigrants, who have taken their Lares and Penates with them, and, erecting altars to them upon the virgin soil of Nebraska, will fight to the death in their defense. A son of Chicago will never give his vote for Slavery in any form, or for any consideration. Virginia, also, is contributing a large non-slaveholding emigration from her northwestern counties.—Important movements have been made by German emigrants in Kentucky, Missouri, and other Western States, with the avowed object of settling Nebraska and Kansas with a large German emigration, in order to keep them free Territories, and to make them free States.

On the other hand, it is well known, throughout the whole border of Missouri, which joins no free State, large numbers of slaveholders are preparing to push their chattels into that territory, and by a desperate endeavor, hope to make it slaveholding. Happily, the North can easily outnumber and outvote them, by proper exertions. The vote of one slaveholder, with even a thousand slaves, counts no more than that of a single freeman, who owns nothing; and with the almost certainty that proper exertions may easily and overwhelmingly outnumber the holders of such fugitive property, it seems hardly probable that very many will run so great a risk of losing their slaves, as to venture them where there is no local law by which to hold them.

The other method, by which the schemes of the slavery propagandists may be foiled, is the restoration of the Missouri Compromise, and the repeal of this infamous law for its abrogation. Before, however, we can hope to accomplish this, there is work to be done—work that demands no common efforts,—work that can be successfully carried through by no half-way or halting performances. The repeal of this violation of compacts must be made the one great and paramount object. All other considerations must give way until this end shall have been achieved. There are great obstacles in our way, but they may be overcome. We must meet these resolutely. We know the full extent of the dangers and difficulties to be encountered, but only that we may the more resolutely set ourselves to the task. We have been beaten, betrayed and cheated, but we have not been conquered. We have been only for the time baffled by our own Northern traitors. The first thing to be done is to punish these recreant servants who have betrayed their trust, and to replace them by true men. Foremost among these stands the treacherous occupant of the executive chair, pledged in his first annual message to prevent agitation—a promise so faithlessly kept! Fifteen Northern Senators and forty-four Northern Representatives have basely and shamelessly betrayed their constituencies. Let the word go forth throughout the length and breadth of the land, to expel from their places, and to consign to lasting and disgraceful obscurity, each and all of these perfidious and treacherous public servants. Let us substitute true men, who need no prompting to do their duty, and who are proof against corrupting appliances. Let all our Congressional elections henceforth turn upon this one issue. Let no man be chosen who is not true as steel.

AURORA RAILROAD.

We are gratified to learn that the old strap rail is nearly all removed from that section of the Aurora railroad between the Junction and Aurora, and the continuous, or compound rail, laid down in its place. Next week the whole will be finished, and then the trains between this city and LaSalle will be able to run through in half an hour less time than heretofore.

The company has also completed twenty-five of the ninety miles of fence required to protect its road, and the remainder will be completed in a short time. It has purchased 1,800,000 feet of pine lumber to complete it, and vessels are unloading them on the dock, east of Wolcott street, as fast as the trains can remove them.

The company has also determined to establish an extensive machine shop here, for repairs and construction of cars, and to that end has purchased the building that was erected some blocks west of the machine shops of the Galena Co. It is thirty feet wide, and two hundred and fifty feet long. A large smith shop, with numerous forges, is to be immediately erected along side of it.

GENERAL NEWS SUMMARY.

Nine vessels arrived in New York from Europe on Saturday, with 12,928 emigrants.

A West Cambridge farmer sold a load of rhubarb in Boston last week for $80, being at the rate of ten cents per pound.

Seth B. Farwell has been appointed by the President, California land commissioner, in place of Mr. Campbell, resigned.

The ship Montezuma, which went ashore below New York on Thursday, is now regarded as a loss. Her passengers, 400 in number, were all taken off on Saturday.

John Taggart and his wife have been arrested in New York for cruelty to a brother 15 years of age, whom they have kept bound hand and foot in a dark room for nearly a month, beating him every day until his body has become completely scarified.

Mr. Sadtler, the Secretary of the U. S. consul at Mainheim, Germany, will shortly return to this country, in order to lay before the secretary of the treasury the proofs of divers frauds perpetrated upon the United States government by German importers.

Ex-Collector Bronson has become the president of the Empire Stone Dressing Company in New York city. He is said to have accepted this office by way of putting himself in training to become the "hard" candidate for governor.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

Rev. Edward Farrelly, a Catholic priest of Saxonville, has sued the Boston Bee for libel, laying his damages at $5,000. The libel consists in the charge that the reverend gentleman had stolen or kidnapped the children of a man named Cassin.

A mechanic at one of the shipyards in Essex, on Wednesday last, while boring a hole through the side of a vessel, requested a young man named Moses Burnham, Jr., to go into the hold and see where the augur came through. He did so, and was looking for it, when the augur having suddenly passed through the wood, struck him in the eye, taking the whole of it from his head.

The "Fairy Guards," (as they might have been:) First Fairy—"What, Nelly, crying as if your heart would break—what's the matter?" Second Fairy (sobbing bitterly)—"Wh-why, would you believe it, that hor-herrid brute of a captain has ordered me to be confined for talking on a parade. I don't m-m-mind the p-punishment, but—(with a burst of tears) only t-t-fancy how dreadful it will sound!—N. Y. Picayune.

Two sovereigns, the Emperor of France and the Sultan of Turkey, are the grandsons of two American Creole girls, natives of the Island of Martinique, of the same neighborhood, and playmates in their youth. One married Napoleon Bonaparte, as her second husband, while the present Emperor is a son of her daughter by a former marriage. The other, on a voyage to Europe was taken captive by Tunis pirates, sold a slave in Constantinople, became the Sultaness of Turkey, and Abdul Mejid is her grandson.

A letter from Canton states, as the result of the Russian expedition to Japan, that the latter had agreed that, at the expiration of another year, it would form a treaty opening its ports to the trade and commerce of the world. In the mean time, it is said, foreign vessels are to be allowed to enter and refit, and take in supplies of wood and water, but not to land their crews. The letter adds that the visit of the United States expedition to Japan had great effect in securing this important concession, particularly as at the time the Japanese were looking for his return to receive a reply to his demand.

They are building a willow dock at La Crosse, Mich. It is constructed entirely of willow twigs about twelve feet long, bound in bundles one foot thick, which are so ingeniously arranged and woven together, that it is impossible for the sand to work out or the water to work in.—Each bundle contains about one hundred small trees, and it will take fifty thousand of these bundles to complete the work. It is said the willows will sprout and grow, rooting firmly together, thereby forming a living superstructure, which will last for ages without the least tendency to decay. Docks like these occur frequently on the banks of the Rhine, in Germany.

The Sons of Temperance are making preparations for a grand celebration at St. Johns, N.B., on the 15th of June.

A convict named Swan attempted to make his escape from the Clinton county jail, N. Y., and was shot dead by the guard. A coroner's jury justified the shooting.

An Irish carriage driver made a very happy and characteristic reply the other day. A gentleman who had replied to Pat's "Want a carriage, sir?" by saying, "No, I am able to walk;" when Pat rejoined: "May your honor long be able, but seldom willing."

The Concord, N.H., Reporter, conducted by Edmund Burke and Cyrus Barton says of the Nebraska bill—"We are ourselves in favor of the principles of that bill, but we have no sort of a doubt that the majority, even of the democratic party of this State, are utterly opposed to it."

The Lowell Courier states unofficially that the Nebraska democracy of that city, consisting of Fisher A. Hildreth, postmaster, and Dr. Churchill of the custom house, have it in contemplation to fire a salute of two guns at midnight one of these nights.

The nuts upon which Lt. Strain's party were obliged to feed during their adventurous exploration of the Isthmus of Darien, contained a strong acid, which has destroyed the enamel of their teeth, and will result in their complete loss.

A Hungarian impostor who answers to the name of Zangowraka, has been practising upon the people of Charlestown and vicinity, by preaching to them, begging money to get seven of his children from Liverpool, and then stepping out.

On the 15th ult., the city of Neutress, Bolivia, was visited by one of the largest conflagrations ever experienced in that country, the entire city being destroyed, together with 70,000 or 80,000 hides, a large lot of deer skins, and other produce. A number of lives are supposed to have been lost.

A man who took lodgings on Tuesday night at the Merchants' Exchange, Boston, where he booked himself as Anthony Donnell, of Brookline, painter, was found dead in his bed on Wednesday morning. A couple of empty vials that had contained laudanum indicated that he "shuffled off this mortal coil" not quite unwillingly.

Of nations as of individuals, the first blessing is independence; neither the man nor the people can be happy to whom any human power can deny the necessaries or conveniences of life. There is no way of living without foreign assistance, but by the product of our own land improved by our own labor.

At Rochester, N. Y., a morning or two since, a small child that attempted to cross the railroad track just as a locomotive was approaching, fell prostrate on the track. Instead of being crushed to death, as the lookers-on expected, the child was pushed along and rolled over by the ash pan of the locomotive until the train could be stopped, when it was removed from its perilous position, perfectly unharmed.

Bayard Taylor lectured at Oberlin, Ohio, recently. The lecture was preceded and followed by the singing of several of his own pieces, set to music for the occasion. It is said that he was affected to tears when the choir struck the first line of a piece written by him on a homeward journey to see his betrothed, who was sick, and whom he afterwards married just before her demise. The poem commences—"From the bosom of ocean I seek thee."

James G. Lewis, proprietor of an eating saloon in Lockport, N. Y., has a tame robin which, until a recent incident, has been a beautiful singer. It was kept in the same room with a parrot, which escaped from its cage a few days, flew across the room and alighted on the cage of the robin. The robin was very much frightened, and since that time has never sung a note, or acted like the same bird it was before. But what is still more singular, its feathers are gradually turning white. It will soon be fitted for a place with the happy family in Barnum's Museum.

The mayor of Cincinnati has issued a proclamation of outlawry against the dogs, authorizing any person to kill such as he may find running at large.—In Philadelphia "war to the knife and the knife to the hilt," is the word.—The trustees of the village of Lockport, N. Y., have imposed a penalty of ten dollars for suffering a dog to run at large, ordered the street inspector to cause all such dogs to be killed, and authorized the citizens to kill all dogs found at large.—In New Orleans the chief of the police has given notice that poisoned sausages, to destroy dogs left running at large, will be distributed about the city.

A correspondent of the Scientific American describes the effects of a stroke of lightning, which occurred at Stillwater, in Minnesota, illustrative of what is well established that the electric fluid sometimes comes from the ground upwards instead of from the clouds downwards. In this case the lightning seemed to have struck a stone near the ground and then passed upwards through the plastered wall, making a small aperture and pushing the shattered splinters through to the apartment above, as if a bullet had been fired from beneath. The dry plastering was also pushed through and scattered around at a distance of at least three feet from the hole, thus showing pretty conclusively that the fluid came from below. The bricks on the chimney, also, were moved in precisely the manner in which they would have been thrown by a force acting upward. One effect of this stroke of lightning was very curious. The lower part of a window in the hall was raised up, so as to bring two thicknesses of glass across the upper part of the window. Two of the outer panes were perforated by two small circular holes, about two inches in diameter, while the corresponding panes on the inside were unharmed.

A MURDERER SENTENCED.

James Wilson, convicted in Boston of the murder of a Mr. Adams, was on the 29th, sentenced to one year's imprisonment, and afterwards to be hung, subject to the decision of the Executive.

For the Tribune.

TO MISS L. H. ON HER NINETEENTH BIRTH-DAY.

I heard just now among the trees,
A tone, as of a summer breeze;
And as it reached my ear,
I looked around, and there, behold!
With outspread wings, illumed with gold
Old Time himself drew near.

And by his side, a maiden walked,
And with Old Time that maiden talked
Of all his journeys past;
And how, she cried, shall I to thee,
Repay the gifts, thou bringest me,
Each fairer than the last.

To me, thy blossoms thou hast given,
To me the brightest rays of Heaven,
No clouds obscure my way;
I have not felt the rose's thorn,
The friends that love me are not gone,
And future scenes look gay.

I owe thee, Time, full nineteen years
Of days and nights, undimm'd by tears,
Thou givest peace to me;
Upon my soul, thou pourest light,
Within my heart, there is no blight,
What shall I pay to thee?

Then, on the maiden's brow, so fair,
Time looked, but left no wrinkle there;
Only a shadow, brought
From that low, hushed, and happy dell
Where study and seclusion dwell
In the calm land of thought.

And go, he cried, my gifts repay,
By guarding each successive day
From idleness, and sin;
Go!—and in holy deeds of love
Move on the earth, as from above,
And be thou pure within.

Chicago, May 30th.

DR. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS.

☞ This great medicine has supplanted all others for the cure of diseases of the liver. Its effects are so salutary and speedy, and at the same time so perfectly safe, that it is not surprising it should supersede all others. Invented by a very distinguished physician of Virginia, who practiced in a region of country in which Hepatis, or Liver Complaint, is peculiarly formidable and common, and who had spent years in discovering the ingredients and proportioning their quantities, these Pills are peculiarly adapted to every form of the disease, and never fail to alleviate the most obstinate cases of that dreadful complaint. They have justly become celebrated, and the researches of Dr. McLane have placed his name among the benefactors of mankind. No one having symptoms of this formidable complaint should be without these invaluable Pills. Have you a pain in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, which increases with pressure—unable to lie with ease on the left side,—with occasional, sometimes constant, pain under the shoulder blade, frequently extending to the top of the shoulder? Rely upon it, that although the latter pains are sometimes taken for rheumatic, they all arise from disease of the liver; and if you would have relief, go in stantly and buy a box of Dr. McLane's Liver Pills.

☞ Purchasers will please be careful to ask for, and take none but Dr. McLane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills.—All others, in comparison, are worthless.

P. S. Dr. McLane's Celebrated Liver Pills, also Dr. McLane's Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all the respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

TESTIMONY FROM AFAR.

INDIGESTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT CURED BY KIER'S PETROLEUM.—Read the following letter from Rev. O. Dickinson, a Missionary in Oregon:

Mr. L. M. KIER—Dear Sir—Myself and wife, having been greatly benefitted by the use of your Petroleum, I wish to have you send me a box of two or three dozen bottles. I am the Congregational Minister in this place, and several of my people are affected with indigestion and an inaction of the liver—the same as myself and wife before taking the ROCK OIL. We commenced taking two or three bottles each, about a year and a half ago, and we have never enjoyed so good health for years as we have since that time. I had not taken a single bottle before that fullness of the stomach which so distresses the dyspeptic was relieved, and I have felt nothing of it since. My wife was also relieved from a chronic disease of the liver, of several years standing, by the use of your Petroleum.

The above is further proof that this NATURAL OIL is a positive, real and powerful remedy, which sold by REED & CO., SCAMMON & CO., and all Druggists in Chicago and the West. R. M. LYON, je1 Proprietor.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned hereby gives notice to whom the following described Lots belong, situated in the city of Chicago, County of Cook, State of Illinois, were taxed for the year 1853, and to all others interested, were severally sold by the said City of Chicago, at the door of the Court House in said city, on the 19th day of July, 1853, for taxes for grading streets, taxes and costs due, therefore, for the year 1853, that E. H. Castle was the purchaser of said Lots at said sale, and that he has assigned the same to me, and the time of redemption, therefore, will expire on the 1st day of September, A. D. 1854:

In Canal Trustees' Subdivision, for grading streets, Lots 2, 4, 5, 11, 12, 13, 18, 22, 27, 29, 32, 33, 36 & 40, in said Canal Trustees' Subdivision, Sec 7, Town 39, N R 14, E 3d P. M.

IKE COOK'S NEBRASKA JUBILEE. And Torch Light Procession!

A GRAND FIZZLE.

JOLLIFICATION OF THE NEBRASKAITES—GRAND RALLY OF THE DOUGHFACES OF CHICAGO.

On Saturday evening, as per announcement, Ike Cook's grand (?) torch light procession came off. The Postmaster's forces were mustered in the back yard of an Irish grog shop on the North Side, where the preliminary proceedings were agreed upon; including that on the part of the government officials, who pledged themselves to pay ten cents an hour to every man, and three cents an hour to every boy under twelve years of age, who would take part in the procession. Notwithstanding this inducement, and the free distribution of liquor, but sixty men and boys, all told—about twenty of the former and forty of the latter—could be found to lend a hand towards carrying the torches, an unlimited supply of which had been procured from the various engine houses.

A few rockets were then let off by the Postmaster's "Man Friday," of liquor notoriety, and the party strengthened by a very shaky and wheezy sort of a band, straggled up to the North Market, where the Marshals made desperate efforts to get the sweepings of the North Side groggeries into line.

The head Marshal of the day was, of course, the Postmaster, aided by a Deputy in the shape of a well known North Side grog shop keeper. The line was tailed off by the Port Collector, in his best clothes, looking very sheepish and ashamed of himself. Cameron, like the Cossacks in the Russian armies, acted on the rear and flanks of the procession, and was especially active in picking up the stragglers from the gutters, and whipping in the small boys.

For the honor of the country, we here state that not an American could be found to take part in the procession. They were "Noble Celts, every mother's sowl of them, be jabers!" and for this reason, that they are always afraid that the "niggers" will get ahead of them, they are somewhat excusable in lending a hand on every possible occasion to help to keep them down. In doing so, too, they make one of their characteristic bulls, forgetting that in doing the bidding of tyranny, they are helping to rivet chains upon themselves.

The procession started, saluted by derisive murmurs, which soon grew to hisses; and, amid jibes and jeers, even from the occupants of the grog shops, who crowded out to laugh and scoff at such an abortion of a procession. The motely affair took up its zig zag, rail-fence march for the South Side. Arrived on Lake street, the hisses and groans could not be suppressed, but were continued by the persons who happened to be passing on the side walks, and who "smoked" the character of the procession not so much from the words "Nebraska and Kansas Territory," daubed with charcoal on the white cotton banner, as from the appearance of the tatterdemalions who composed it.

Arriving at Michigan Avenue, Dick Swift's artillery man, no doubt intending a practical joke, discharged his piece on the left flank of the procession, and at such an angle as to sweep three quarters of it from the head to the tail.—The concussion, of course, extinguished three-fourths of the torches, and knocked over two or three of the most unsteady in the ranks. The Port Collector was one of the extinguished individuals, and was seen no more during the proceedings. He escaped in the "noise and confusion," no doubt laying the flattering unction conveyed in Hudibras' celebrated lines to his soul:

"He who fights and runs away,
May hope to fight another day;
But he who's in the battle slain,
Will never live to fight again!"

The procession, with some difficulty, on account, it is supposed, of the Deputy Marshal beginning at this time to be blessed with a double vision, found the entrance to Dearborn Park, and the Celts dropped in after some amusing chasseeing right and left on the part of a number of the torch bearers.

Arriving opposite the stand, at the suggestion, we understand, of the Flank and Rear Marshal, although we are not officially posted on this point, the band struck up, "Och, Whisky's the Divil intirely." Thereat several of the torch bearers nodded an approving assent.

Loud cries were then made for Hamilton, Cameron, and Cook, by the insiders; and for Hoyne, Snowhook, Cook, Agan, and others, by the outsiders. Col. Hamilton took the stand.—He said this was the most momentous occasion in the history of the country. (Cheers from the torch bearers, the boys' alto largely predominating over the base of the larger bipeds. Groans from the outsiders, mingled with ironical cheers for Col. Humbug.) The Colonel resumed when the opposing parties had become tired. He said that they had come to rejoice over the settlement of a most momentous question; that Judge Douglas was the greatest man in the United States. (Cheers from the insiders, answered by three distinct and overwhelming groans from the outsiders, which appeared to dash the Colonel considerably.) He again resumed; said he hoped Senator Douglas would send in his resignation, and then stump the State. From every hill and every valley, every high place and every prairie, the cry, "The Douglas! The Douglas!" would go up, as with one voice the people rushed to the polls to again honor "Illinois' illustrious Senator."

This burst appeared to excite Cameron highly. He took off his hat and called for three cheers for Douglas. Cheers from the insiders drowned by groans and sundry other stunning noises from the outsiders. During the excitement one of the small boys employed to carry the torches, threw a fire-cracker, which alighted on the Colonel's nose. The "Gallant Son of Mars" made frantic attempts to beat it off, but was not successful; it exploded in very close proximity to his face, and effectually put an estopper upon his eloquent remarks. We learn, however, that they will not be lost to the world.—"Our friend Brown," of Iverson memory, has promised to publish them, in "pamphlet form," if the illustrious Colonel's health is such, during the coming week, as to enable him to furnish them, carefully corrected, for the Press. It is a momentous occasion, a momentous subject, the Colonel's was a momentous speech, and no doubt there will be a momentous rush at "Our Counter," to obtain that pamphlet.

Upon this abrupt and untoward "taking off" of the Colonel's speech, Ike's "Man Friday" jumped upon the stand and made an abortive attempt to stay the Eddy-ing tumult. His face was livid with rage, and his action decidedly frantic. He shouted, he stamped, he raved; but we could hear "never a word" he said.—During his exhibition of himself, one or two of the "noble Celts" rushed upon the outsiders attacking them with the handles of their torches. In the scuffle, we noticed two or three Irish Justices in anything but peaceful attitudes, in fact dealing blows upon a number of unoffending Americans who were standing by. The procession then straggled off the ground, and those composing it retired to the grog shops of the North side, to console themselves with the "red eye," for the sorry affair, which called down upon its projectors and those who were engaged in it, the derision not only of our citizens but also of the numerous strangers who are visiting the West at this particular time.

The head Marshal of the day was, of course, the Postmaster, aided by a Deputy in the shape of a well known North Side grog shop keeper. The line was tailed off by the Port Collector, in his best clothes, looking very sheepish and ashamed of himself. Cameron, like the Cossacks in the Russian armies, acted on the rear and flanks of the procession, and was especially active in picking up the stragglers from the gutters, and whipping in the small boys.

For the honor of the country, we here state that not an American could be found to take part in the procession. In doing so, too, they make one of their characteristic bulls, forgetting that in doing the bidding of tyranny, they are helping to rivet chains upon themselves.

The procession started, saluted by derisive murmurs, which soon grew to hisses; and, amid jibes and jeers, even from the occupants of the grog shops, who crowded out to laugh and scoff at such an abortion of a procession. The motely affair took up its zig zag, rail-fence march for the South Side. Loud cries were then made for Hamilton, Cameron, and Cook, by the insiders; and for Hoyne, Snowhook, Cook, Agan, and others, by the outsiders. Col. (Cheers from the torch bearers, the boys' alto largely predominating over the bass of the larger bipeds. Groans from the outsiders, mingled with ironical cheers for Col. Humbug.) The Colonel resumed when the opposing parties had become tired. In conclusion, we may state that "We never hope to look upon its like again."

We have been, also, requested to state, that notsatisfied with this attempt, the Democrats of the North Side who approve of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, will make another effort to celebrate the passage of the Nebraska bill by a display of fireworks and other manifestatations of their joy and exultation on this evening, the 5th inst. A grand time is expected. No pains or dimes have been spared, and every exertion has been made to secure a most splendid fete. Through the kindness of a prominent doughface, we are enabled, in advance of all our cotemporaries, to give the following programme of the arrangements, which will be strictly carried out. The performances will commence with the formation of a procession, in the following order:

First, Forty-four Doughfaces, dressed in turned coats, and parti-colored pantaloons, walking two abreast and chanting, "Jordan am a hard road to trabble." These are to represent the forty-four northern members of Congress who voted for the Nebraska infamy.

Second, NEBRASKA BILL, represented by a large and burly white man, painted black, (it having been found impossible to procure a colored man for the occasion,) habited in tow linen shirt and striped pants, and supported on either side by two gentlemen, dressed as members of Congress, who will endeavor to represent the appearance and manners of Messrs. Richardson and Allen of this State, as near as may be.

Third, Immediately in the rear of Nebraska Bill, and with his head placed near the small of the latter person's back, in the posture and act of pushing him through, a figure with very short legs and large head, bearing a remarkable likeness to an individual once well known in this city, and who has lately distinguished himself by a visit to Russia, and by his unceasing efforts in behalf of African serfdom since his return. An old suit of this individual's clothes having been provided for the occasion, the resemblance will be so perfect as to delude even his most intimate friends, many of whom, by the way, will be in the procession.

Fourth, Two very turbulent and noisy bullies, wearing the costume which tradition and Ed. Forrest assigns to the Gladiator, and carrying large shillelahs, which they will occasionally brandish over each others' heads, ejaculating as they do so, "you scoundrel, you d——d scoundrel, you infernal, sneaking scoundrel!" These will at once be understood to represent Messrs. Campbell and Edmundson, the Tom Hyer and Yankee Sullivan of the House of Representatives.

Fifth, The Black Laws of Illinois, borne aloft upon a young hickory pole, and ornamented with festoons of whips, lashes and handcuffs.

Sixth, A copy of the Fugitive Slave Law, carried by four Deputy United States Marshals, armed to the teeth, and looking very bloodthirsty.

Seventh, A large banner, bearing the following inscription:

"NEBRASKA AND WHISKY."
THE MOTTO OF THE DEMOCRACY.

Eighth, An allegorical representation of "Young America," represented by a youngster, very tipsy, very profane, and in the act of whipping his mother.

Ninth, Music. The Rogues' March.

Tenth, Citizens and strangers, in carriages, on horse-back, and on foot.

After passing through the principal streets, the procession will pause, and the entertainment of the evening will commence. We have been unable to obtain authentic information as to the exact nature of the performances, but learn that the fire works will represent, among other Tableaux, John Mitchell's plantation of fat negroes on the Alabama; Judge Douglas' ditto in Louisiana; the slave pens in Nebraska and Kansas, and will close with a beautiful emblematical representation of "Popular Sovereignty in Nebraska," and a picture showing the capture of a fugitive slave in Chicago made by Senator Douglas in person.

The entire entertainment is to conclude with a grand drunk; liquor to be furnished free.

N. B.—No Abolitionists or Free Soilers to be admitted on any ground. Free admittance to all others, except colored persons. Front seats will be reserved for Softs.

"DOWN WITH THE DUST."

It is imperatively necessary for the health, comfort and convenience of the residents on State street below Randolph, that that thoroughfare be kept nicely watered. The dust upon it is now three inches deep—it arises in stifling and suffocating clouds upon the passage of every vehicle—the omnibusses come down enveloped in a cloud of almost impenetrable sand—the air is filled with the minute particles—it is breathed and swallowed—it lays upon the door steps and window frames—it floats over the house tops and settles down upon the gardens, covering the flowers and plants with a dreary looking coat of dirty yellow. In a word, one of the most pleasant streets of the city is rendered almost uninhabitable, by this annoyance. We have conversed with a number of the residents upon the subject, and found them all willing and even anxious, to have a man employed to abate the nuisance. If any one will make the movement he will find no difficulty in getting well paid for it. Who will attempt the charitable work? Again we say, Down with the Dust!

THE GRAND EXCURSION TO-DAY.

The Train containing the guests of the Rock Island Railroad Company, will leave the depot this morning at eight o'clock. We understand that Col. Mix, the enterprising agent of the Road, has chartered the Golden Era, Lady Franklin, and G. W. Sparhawk, of the St. Louis & Galena Packet Line, and the War Eagle and Galena, of the Minnesota Packet Line, for the accommodation of the guests. The boats will be at Rock Island on the arrival of the train with the guests at that place. The boats will reach Galena on Tuesday morning, and the citizens of that place have made arrangements to give to the excursionists a reception that will be creditable to the city and acceptable to the visitors.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

An Englishman named Robinson made a savage and almost fatal attack upon a brother countryman, during Saturday evening. The victim was struck under the left temple by the sharp edge of a hatchet, which penetrated to the brain, making a most fearful wound. Dr. A. B. Palmer was called to attend the wounded man, who lies in a very precarious condition. Robinson was arrested, and is now in jail. His victim was engaged in keeping a hat and cap store on Randolph street, opposite the Planter's House, but we did not learn his name. The affray was all caused about a woman, one claiming more right to her than the other—just as if there were not enough of the sex in Chicago to satisfy them.

MAIL ROBBER ARRESTED.

A young man was arrested in this city on Saturday morning, for an alleged attempt to rob the mail recently at New Vineyard, Maine.—The information was furnished by a telegraphic despatch from Portland. The prisoner started East on the Saturday afternoon train, in custody of a U. S. Deputy Marshal.

COOK COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.

Hon. ISAAC G. WILSON, presiding. In the case of Charles Walker vs. the Illinois Central Railroad Company, after hearing the argument of counsel on both sides last week, the Court granted a new trial.

MARINE.

Arrived at Buffalo on Thursday, from this port, propeller St. Joseph. Cleared on the same day, steamer Globe, for Chicago.

☞ TWO YOUNG GENTLEMEN wish to obtain a pleasant and salubrious room, with good boarding, in a house on the South Side of the river, not more than five minutes walk from the Post-office. A room in a private family would be much preferred. The most unexceptionable references given. Address "Board," at the Editorial Rooms of this office.

☞ The schooner Oriental cleared from Detroit on Friday for this port.

THEATRE.—MISS AGNES ROBERTSON.—A new star of surpassing loveliness and grace will dawn upon our Theatrical sky this evening, in the person of the lady whose name heads this paragraph. Public curiosity and expectation, which has been on tiptoe for several days past, in relation to the debut here of this fair stranger, will, we venture to predict, be more than satisfied—it will be enraptured. Most peculiarly grateful will be the brilliant, sparkling and lively style of Miss Robertson to us, coming as it does, after the long run of heavy Tragedy which we have been blessed with.

This lady has been but a few months in America, but ever since her first appearance here, her progress has been an almost uninterrupted triumphal march. She came to Boston to fill an engagement of a fortnight. She was only able to escape from there after playing, we believe, nineteen weeks. She took that city by storm.—The houses were crowded night after night, seats sold at a premium, and the stage was nightly loaded with bouquets. At Philadelphia, a city remarkable for the apathy and coldness with which new stars are received, the same effect was produced. Bouquets innumerable were showered upon her, and her room at the La Pierre House was corniced with the floral tributes of the admiration of the people of the Quaker City. Her extraordinary and most perfect beauty, her winning and irresistable charm of manner, and her indisputable talent as an actress, place her at once where she belongs, in the front rank of the female stars now upon the Stage.

She appears to-night in one of her most charming pieces. We bespeak for her a welcome worthy of her; one which will show that we can and do appreciate and honor talent and beauty, when combined in such rare perfection.

A FIGHT.—There was considerable of a row on Saturday afternoon at a beer saloon near the Southern Michigan freight depot. It was between a party of drunken Irish and Dutch, and a general bruising of heads and dials took place, hardly improving the beauty of any who were engaged in it. The row was started by "a free treat" at the Saloon, and as soon as the first blow was struck, all hands "pitched in," and the result can be better imagined than described.

EDITORIAL MEETING.—Several of the Editors now visiting our city, met in the sanctum of the Journal on Saturday afternoon, by invitation of the courteous Editors of that paper. An hour was passed in a very agreeable manner, making new acquaintances, and inducing a happy feeling of unity among all present. The improvement of such opportunities for assembling together the representatives of the "art preservative of all arts," is never without its beneficial effects, and tends to make the moment one of long and happy remembrances.

MORE TRAINS.—An additional passenger train will be put on the "Dixon Line" of the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad to-day—leaving this city every afternoon, until further notice, at 4½ o'clock. As travel increases, so do the number of trains, and empty seats grow less.

☞ We call attention to a Trustee's Sale of Block 22, in Section 7, which is to come off at the offices of Rees and Kerfoot, No. 48 Clark street, this forenoon at 11 o'clock. Messrs. Marshall & Co., are ordered to sell without reserve, to the highest bidder, and no doubt a good chance will be presented to those who wish to buy in the wholesale way. The Block contains 100 lots, and that neighborhood is being rapidly settled.

LECTURE ON IRELAND.—We see it announced that JOHN H. WALLACE, Esq., of New York, will lecture at Warner's Hall at 7½ o'clock this evening. His lecture will treat of Irish Manners, Customs, Languages, History, Race, &c.

☞ Among the arrivals at the Tremont House yesterday morning, was Hon. W. A. Richardson, Representative in Congress from the Quincy District. We wonder if he brought a negro on his back to ship to Nebraska?

☞ The Panorama of the Great West will be exhibited in this city for the last time, at Tremont Hall, this evening.

NEW YORK MARKET—June 3—2 P.M.

FLOUR—Scarcely so good demand, and market firmer. Does not present any very important change, inferior or bogus, and can be picked up at Eastern prices, while common and good grades are very firmly held. Sales: 4,600 bbls at $9@9,25 for inferior State—$9@9,25 for common to straight State—9,50@9,62 for choice do—9,44@9,94 for mixed to fancy Michigan and common to good Ohio. There is less inquiry for Canadian, and market scarcely so firm. Sales: 1400 bbls at 8,37 for common, and 9,50@9,75, duty paid.

GRAIN—Less buoyant in WHEAT market, and we notice only a moderate demand for export, and home consumption. Sales: 1050 bu upper Lake, at 1,85. 2 000 bu fair white Canadian, at 2,10. 2,400 bu prime red Southern, at 2,04.——RYE quiet, and firm, at 1,25.——CORN more plenty, and with falling off in demand, and market easier. Sales: 34,000 bushels at 74@80c for unsound, and 80@82c for sound western mixed. Closing heavy at 80@81c.——OATS more plenty, and market for large parcels lower, and prices unsettled. Small sales at 70@75c, but for large parcels lower prices must be accepted.

WHISKEY—Market scarcely so firm. Sales: 350 bbls Ohio and Prison, at 30@31, closing at inside price.

PROVISIONS—Pork market firmer for mess, which is caused by demand to fill contract, at $12@12,12½@12,25.——Demand for Beef good at former quotations.—Beef Hams scarce at 19c.——In Cut Meats, a moderate business at 6¾@7¾c for Hams—4¾@5¾c for Shoulders.——Lard dull at 9¾@9¾.——Butter and Cheese unchanged.——Ashes—Market heavy. Sales to fair extent—5,75 for Pearls—5,81@5,87 for Pots.

BY TELEGRAPH

REPORTED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE

London, C. W., June 2.

The express train going east this evening ran over a cow on the track a few miles west of this place. The locomotive and first baggage car were not thrown off, but the next cars, comprising a 1st and 2d passenger, and one baggage car, were thrown down an embankment 12 feet deep. The baggage car was entirely smashed to pieces. The 2d class car was very badly broken. The 1st class car not much injured. In the 2d class car were a number of Norweigan emigrants, who, it is reported, were travelling east by mistake.

The scene in the first car was horrible—six persons, five men and one woman, were instantly killed, and four others so much injured as to die the same night. In the 1st class car several persons were slightly injured. One gentleman, residing in the interior of N. Y. State, was standing on the platform, from which he jumped down the embankment, and the cars falling upon him killed him instantly. We have not yet learned his name. The persons injured were taken to London and Hamilton, and their injuries attended to.

Boston, June 3.

Mr. Dana, one of the counsel for Burns, was struck on the temple, it is supposed with a slung shot, by some person unknown, while walking last night to his residence in Cambridge. It is asserted that this assault was instigated by some of the deputy marshalls who acted as a guard over Burns, and the cause for it was some rather personal allusions made towards him in his argument.

The trial of the rioters arrested for the murder of Batcheldor was commenced this morning. It will last for some days. The coroner's jury in the case of Batcheldor returned a verdict that he died of a wound in the left groin, which severed the femoral artery.

Three images were discovered this morning suspended to the flag staff on the Common, labelled "B. F Hallett, District Att'y and Adj't Gen'l to the Prince of Darkness. Marshal Freeman, Chief of the Boston Ruffians, Slaveholders and Bloodhounds. Com. Loring, the ten dollar Jeffries of 1854."

At Manchester, yesterday, the bells were tolled on receipt of news that Burns had been remanded.

The excitement to-day in Boston has been greater than ever before known.

The Journal of this afternoon announces the appointment of Julius Rockwell of Pittsfield, Mass., U. S. Senator, in place of Hon. E. Everett resigned.

Washington, June 3.

A telegraphic despatch sent to Mr. Morse, U. S. Dis't Att'y, to employ all the power vested in him to bring the Fillibusters to justice.

The fishing treaty between the U. S. and England is nearly completed. All the prominent points are essentially agreed upon. Lord Elgin will not leave Washington until the treaty is signed, which will require not only the satisfaction of the Senate, but the House.

The Union of this morning is entirely silent on the Black Warrior affair and the inference is that the account of the settlement, published by the Star, is premature.

The pension committee of the Senate have agreed to report a bill granting a pension to the widow of Batcheldor of $3,600.

New York, June 3.

Advices from China report that the rebels had captured the city of Loo Choo, and they were marching on to other victories.

An outrage had been committed on the American flag, but it was promptly atoned for.

The Whig Convention at Pittsburg have renominated David Ritchie the present Representative in Congress from that district by acclamation.

The Franklin sailed at noon for Havre via Southampton with 230 passengers and $1,261,299. Among her passengers is Prince Jerome Bonaparte.

Baltimore, June 3.

A private letter received by the Asia of a very late date from Constantinople states that the finances of Turkey are in the most deplorable condition. The government finds it impossible to raise men. Aspect of affairs gloomy.

Philadelphia, June 3.

The screw steamer City of Manchester sailed at noon with 125 passengers and $110,000 in specie. While backing out from the dock she stuck in the mud on the Island, and will be got off at high tide.

WATER LIME,
OR HYDRAULIC CEMENT.

IMPORTANT TO CONTRACTORS, ENGINEERS, Masons, Builders, and others. The Sandusky City Manufacturing Company are furnishing an article of Cement or Water Lime, fully equal in all respects to any in the United States, and at a much less price than Good Cement has ever been sold in this city.

THE SANDUSKY CITY WATER LIME should be used for all kinds of Underground, Udderwater and exposed structures; for all important Buildings, Fire, Walls, Coping Walls, Chimney Tops, Bridges, Acqueducts Canal Locks, every species of Brick and Stone Structure exposed to water, damp or frost under water.

IT SETS QUICKLY,

Indurates rapidly, and in a few weeks acquires a degree of strength and hardness rarely found in cement mortars after several years of age. Engineers, Contractors, and others, are particularly requested to give this article a thorough and rigorous trial.

SANDUSKY CITY CO. QUICK LIME.

The Sandusky City Manufacturing Company are also manufacturing a superior WHITE LIME. In order to make it more advantageous to the consumer, the Lime, immediately on being drawn from the kilns, is ground and packed in strong tight barrels well lined with paper, and each barrel warranted to contain over four bushels Struck Lime, thereby making one barrel of this Lime equal in use to nearly five bushels, or

TWO BARRELS OF LUMP LIME.

Consequently, it is much cheaper than common lump lime, there being no waste and no sifting required, while if kept free from rain or excessive dampness, it will remain good for months.

SANDUSKY CITY STUCCO LIME.

This lime differs from the ordinary quick lime only in being very pure and of surpassing whiteness. Being slight by hydraulic, it makes very hard wall, and is admirably adapted for the hard finish in houses or buildings where a very white handsome wall is wanted.

The Sandusky City Manufacturing Company having appointed G. F. THOMAS, Agent Chicago, Ill., For the sale of their Hydraulic Cement or Water Lime and Common Quick Lime, throughout the North and West, all communications addressed to him will meet with prompt attention.

G. F. THOMAS can be found for the present at Messrs. Neeley & Howe's Commission Warehouse, corner of Franklin and Water sts., Chicago.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.

☞ The attention of our readers is called to Professor Holloway's Advertisement, in another part of our columns. The world-wide renown of his Pills and Ointment are too well known to require much comment from us; but they are, without doubt, the most efficacious remedies for all the ills which flesh is heir to. Many of our readers have derived immense benefit from using the Pills in cases of bile and general derangements of the stomach and bowels, and by cutaneous diseases can resist the curative powers of the Ointment. The effect it has on the human frame is certainly astonishing.

The ATLANTA BANK OF GEORGIA, recently chartered by the Legislature of that State, is now owned by the subscribers, and as such owners they are personally liable for all its issues in terms of the act of incorporation. The Notes of the Bank will be received on deposit by the subscribers on the same terms that Ohio and Indiana money is received, and they will be redeemed in New York by the Agents of the Bank at three quarters of a per cent. discount. LYON'S KATHAIRON.

☞ We wish to call the attention of the public to a source of luxury, comfort and happiness—to past neglect and a present opportunity of amendment. The numerous cases of baldness in America is truly surprising. The young can not take warning, or the old apply a remedy too soon.—Who that is old, but would avert baldness? Who that is young but values the luxuriant locks of youth and beauty? Effects like these are stayed, and many years of otherwise premature old age is regained to youth by using Lyon's Kathairon.

Lyon's Kathairon is but 25 cents, in large bottles. Sold throughout the world, by all dealers. D. S. Barnes, Proprietor, 161 Broadway, N. Y. dsl

DR. C. HERRING'S

FEMALE CATHOLICON may be had at the Drug Stores generally, at Chicago, in a few weeks. This is probably the best remedy ever offered to the public for the cure of female diseases generally. For diseases of the womb, [illegible]

IT SHOULD BE OBSERVED.

THAT a period of time which has been looked for by a wise and intelligent people for a series of years, as anxiously: when a scientific discovery would be made in Medical Science and a remedy placed before the public which would offer a protection to the purchaser and a sure remedy of health to the individual whose system had become prostrated by disease, which was making an impress too powerful for the constitution to battle and its grasps growing firmer and bolder and more tenacious and fatal in its results, viz.—the termination of life to the individual. We deem it to be a duty which behooves us in view of our accountability to a higher court than earthly for our acts and knowledge, to transmit to the public data which will be available evidence and considered admissable beyond the power of impeachment, that the day has dawned, and is heralded with one general voice of acclamation from the North to the South and from the East to the West, It is true, it is true!

Dr. A. L. ADAMS has made the scientific discovery, in the remedy, and named it

"LIVER BALSAM."

It affords a sure indemnity to the afflicted, who are suffering by disease, which, if not checked, will overpower the constitution and destroy the vitality, to wit—health, happiness and the longevity of life. We are happy to state that more than 40,000 persons have been restored to health by this invaluable remedy, and now are acting upon the grand theatre of life, with a strong and energetic nerve. You who are chained down and deprived of the enjoyments of life by a disease which is fast moving you to that fixed and settled state of existence which has no change, and have lost faith in remedies placed before the public for patronage (and perhaps you have been robbed of your money, your days cut short by base and dishonest quackery and quack nostrums.) Give your attention to a remedy which is a scientific one, having cost the most rigorous investigation and profound research for fifteen years, and after you have tried this Medicine let us see you, and if you can look us in the eye and pronounce it (and the deception proved) a humbug, we shall hold ourselves responsible for all damages. This is out of the question. It has been thoroughly tested in all diseases which it makes claims to cure, and has wielded its unconquerable power until it has set health at the dominion. This is the mission of Dr. A. L. Adam's Liver Balsam; and you who believe not, will you just present your cases to any authorized Agent in the United States, and you will thereby secure the proof which will enable you to congratulate yourself, that the period of time has surely come, when a reliable compound has been discovered which is a scientific and an honest one.

See Dr. Adam's advertisement, and call for no other medicine. a30

JOSEPH GILLOTT'S STEEL PENS.

INFRINGEMENT OF TRADE MARKS.

AT the general term of the Superior Court, held at the City of New York, March 11, 1854, in the case of Gillott vs. Lewis A. Kettle, the order of the Special Term was affirmed with costs.

The above action was had against the Defendant for the sale of Pens in boxes from which the original labels had been removed, and other labels placed thereon purporting that the pens were the Genuine No. 303, manufactured by the Plaintiff.

Notice is hereby given, that legal proceedings will be commenced against all persons detected in the sale of Pens bearing said changed labels.

A REWARD OF ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS

will be paid to the Printer of said labels, or any other person who will enable the Plaintiff to make proof of the quantity of labels so printed, and the persons for whom they were printed.

CAUTION TO CUSTOMERS.

Please observe that each Genuine Pen, No. 303, has the said number stamped thereon, with the maker's name in full. HENRY OWEN, Agent, a21-3m-lr-Mr 91 John st., N. Y.

WANTED.

A FEW YOUNG MEN to travel for the purpose of selling a valuable Medicinal preparation; the business is pleasant, easily attended to, and the profits are such, that if a person attends well to his employment, he can make from $30 to $75 a month Commissions. As each young man employed will require an amount of stock to commence business with, it will be necessary for those that wish to engage in it, to have a small cash capital, say from $25 to $200 (those who cannot furnish the required amount in cash, need not apply.)

To those who can use from $25 to $200 in the business, a fair per centage will be allowed on all their sales, so that if diligent and attentive to business, they can make as stated above, from $30 to $75 per month, depending upon the amount of stock they commence business with. Or if any party prefers it, a stated salary (instead of commissions) will be paid as follows:

[illegible] dollars per year to those who invest 25 dollars. [illegible]

And to those who can use $200, a salary of $300 per year will be paid.

Young men with small means, wishing employment, will find this a good chance to getting into business. Personal application can be made at the

SPRING AND SUMMER CAMPAIGN OF

THE VULCAN COOK STOVE LEADS THE COLUMN.

450 of those splendid Cook Stoves received to-day at 123 Lake st., the only place where this Stove can be had in Chicago. Our arrangements for this season are such that every family in the Western country that has not already secured one of these stoves, can be supplied. The Vulcan received the Diploma at the STATE MECHANICS' FAIR, and was greatly admired by the thousands who visited the Hall. This Stove has taken the Premium wherever it has been introduced, and it is destined to supplant everything in the shape of a Cook Stove in the western country, and will be used by a free and happy people all over the American Continent and adjacent Islands; knowing no North, no South, no East, no West, but the whole country, and nothing short of the country. For sale at Wholesale and Retail, by WM. KENNEDY & SONS, 123 Lake st., sole Agents for Chicago.

ROCK OIL!

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 23, 1852.

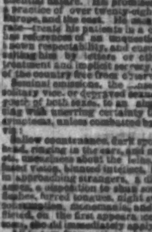

I cheerfully recommend KIER'S PETROLEUM to the afflicted in the hope of doing good to others. My grandson, 18 months old had had DIARRHOEA from its birth, and was poor and emaciated. The use of the Oil 10 days placed him beyond all danger. He is now hearty and well, and growing finely. JAMES DONOVAN

Directions in Diarrhoea—ten spoonful every three hours old cases, three times a day. In cholera morbus, every hour. Children take less. See pamphlet round the bottles. S. M. LYON, Proprietor. CHOLERA, DIARRHOEA, &c.

HEALTH PRESERVED BY THE USE OF A Condiment.—It is well known that where wholesome food is taken, and the stomach kept in tone to digest it, the directly fatal above named rarely, if ever, occur; but as safety consists in prevention, it should be universally known that in the habitual use of Lea & Perrins' Worcestershire Sauce not only promotes perfect digestion, but it imparts an exquisite zest to almost every article of food. The world-wide fame of this Sauce, as a most agreeable relish, is well established, but its health preserving properties should recommend it to daily use in every family, every hotel, and every boarding house. CHICAGO PRIVATE HOSPITAL.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES—DR. LAVAR, Physician and Surgeon, and Proprietor of the old established Hospital, corner of Clark and Madison sts., Chicago, Ill., continues to direct his whole time to the exclusive treatment of Private Diseases in all their varieties—in all of which he is constantly effecting cures of the most remarkable character—annihilating recent cases of infection in from three to six days, and all lingering attacks in a very short period of time. The remedies employed by Dr. Lavar are free from any offensive odor or smell, contain no mercury, and require no change in diet, business or pleasure. Persons residing at home or boarding in private families, or at hotels, need not fear exposure. Ten years' every day experience, enables Dr. L. to offer to the victims of false pleasures the only reliable means of cure, as his medicines are the result of much experience, and a firm determination to be in advance of all competition in treating these much neglected diseases. Rare cases, hardly seen by others once in their lifetime are seen and treated by Dr. L. every day. What distinguishes him from all, and what enables him to perform cures so quickly, is the particular care he takes with those that have contracted diseases. Thus he prevents secondary attacks. Besides, being pleasant, his prescriptions can be taken without discovery. Of him you will obtain the equivalent for your money, and what is rarely performed, a sound cure. He informs the unfortunate, that not relying on one method, but acquainted with every improvement, he has a great advantage over most, who stick to treat on the old system, that requires many months, whereas he performs cures in as many days. There are thousands suffering with these diseases. He would urge on them the danger of treating themselves, and advise them to make early application. Be not deterred by pecuniary considerations. He will treat you wholly on your own terms. Young men who, by indulging in solitary habits, have contracted that soul-subduing, mind-prostrating and body-destroying vice, one that fills our lunatic asylums, and crowds to repletion the wards of our hospitals, may consult Dr. L. with honorable assurance of having a cure effected by the use of remedies pleasant, certain and safe. Letters received, and medicine forwarded to the writer's address, to all parts of the world, no boxes opened. N. B. Ladies in want of a pleasant and safe remedy for irregularities, obstructions, &c. can obtain Dr. Lavar's Female Monthly Pills at the Doctor's office, corner of Clark and Madison sts. CAUTION.—Married Ladies, in certain situations, should not use them—for reasons see directions with each box.—Price $1, sent by mail to all parts of the world. Dr. Lavar's Office corner of Clark and Madison sts., Chicago, Ill. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

DOCTOR ATKINSON

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Dr. Atkinson (from the east) has opened an office for the cure of all diseases of a confidential nature. His promises of cure are based upon a practice of over twenty-eight years, in different cities of Europe and the east. 227 The Empire Clothing Store. 227

E. B. HURD & CO.,

HAVE opened the Store 227 Lake street, which they are now filling with a new and complete stock of CLOTHING and GENTS. FURNISHING GOODS, and which they now offer, wholesale and retail, at such prices as defy all competition. E. B. HURD & CO. would respectfully intimate that having a large wholesale manufactory in Connecticut, from which they daily send out to all parts of the Union, an immense supply of every description of Clothing, they have facilities peculiar to themselves for supplying the public with a well made article, and of such style and workmanship as will insure the admiration of all who honor them with a call. COUNTRY MERCHANTS, especially, will find it to their interest to give us a call before either making a purchase in Chicago, or proceeding to any Eastern market. We can sell at New York prices, less insurance freight, and the expense of a journey to that city. Our goods are made by first-rate workmen and at less expense than they can possibly be made for in a new city. As our terms are prompt payment and small profits, none of our customers will have to pay for other people's bad debts. E. B. Hurd & Co., intend to make their establishment in reality The Empire Clothing Store, which shall be worthy the patronage of Gentlemen of refined taste, and where the farmer and the mechanic will be able to obtain the cheapest and the best of Cloths. Mark the address, 227 Lake Street near the corner Franklin St.
